

Section 116-050      Open Space Requirements

All land not used for construction of dwellings, roads, parking or private yards shall be considered open space. Except when required for town use, open space shall be dedicated to use by residents of the Active Adult Community Development with adequate control to assure its maintenance and with restrictions or covenants prohibiting or restricting building on it. (Effective: February 19, 2000)