

Section 185-030      Pending Application for Building Permit

Nothing herein contained shall require any change in the plans, construction, size or designated use of a building for which a building permit has been granted, or for which plans were on file with the Building Inspector before the effective date of these regulations, and the construction of which from such plans shall have been started within six (6) months of such date.